Artist saves old tree with artist's touch

Artist Erik Fredsti puts the finishing touches on a 12 1/2-foot sculpture of a mother bear and her two cubs on Tuesday at 3509 Rocky Point Road. Fredsti started carving the figure three months ago from an existing 200-year-old Jeffrey Pine that had died of beetle kill. Instead of cutting down the tree, the owner of the property decided to hire Fredsti to create the work of art.
